

Germany is Europe's leading weapons exporter. In 2010 it sold over 3 billion euros' worth of weapons to other countries. Its main customers are Greece, South Africa and Turkey.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

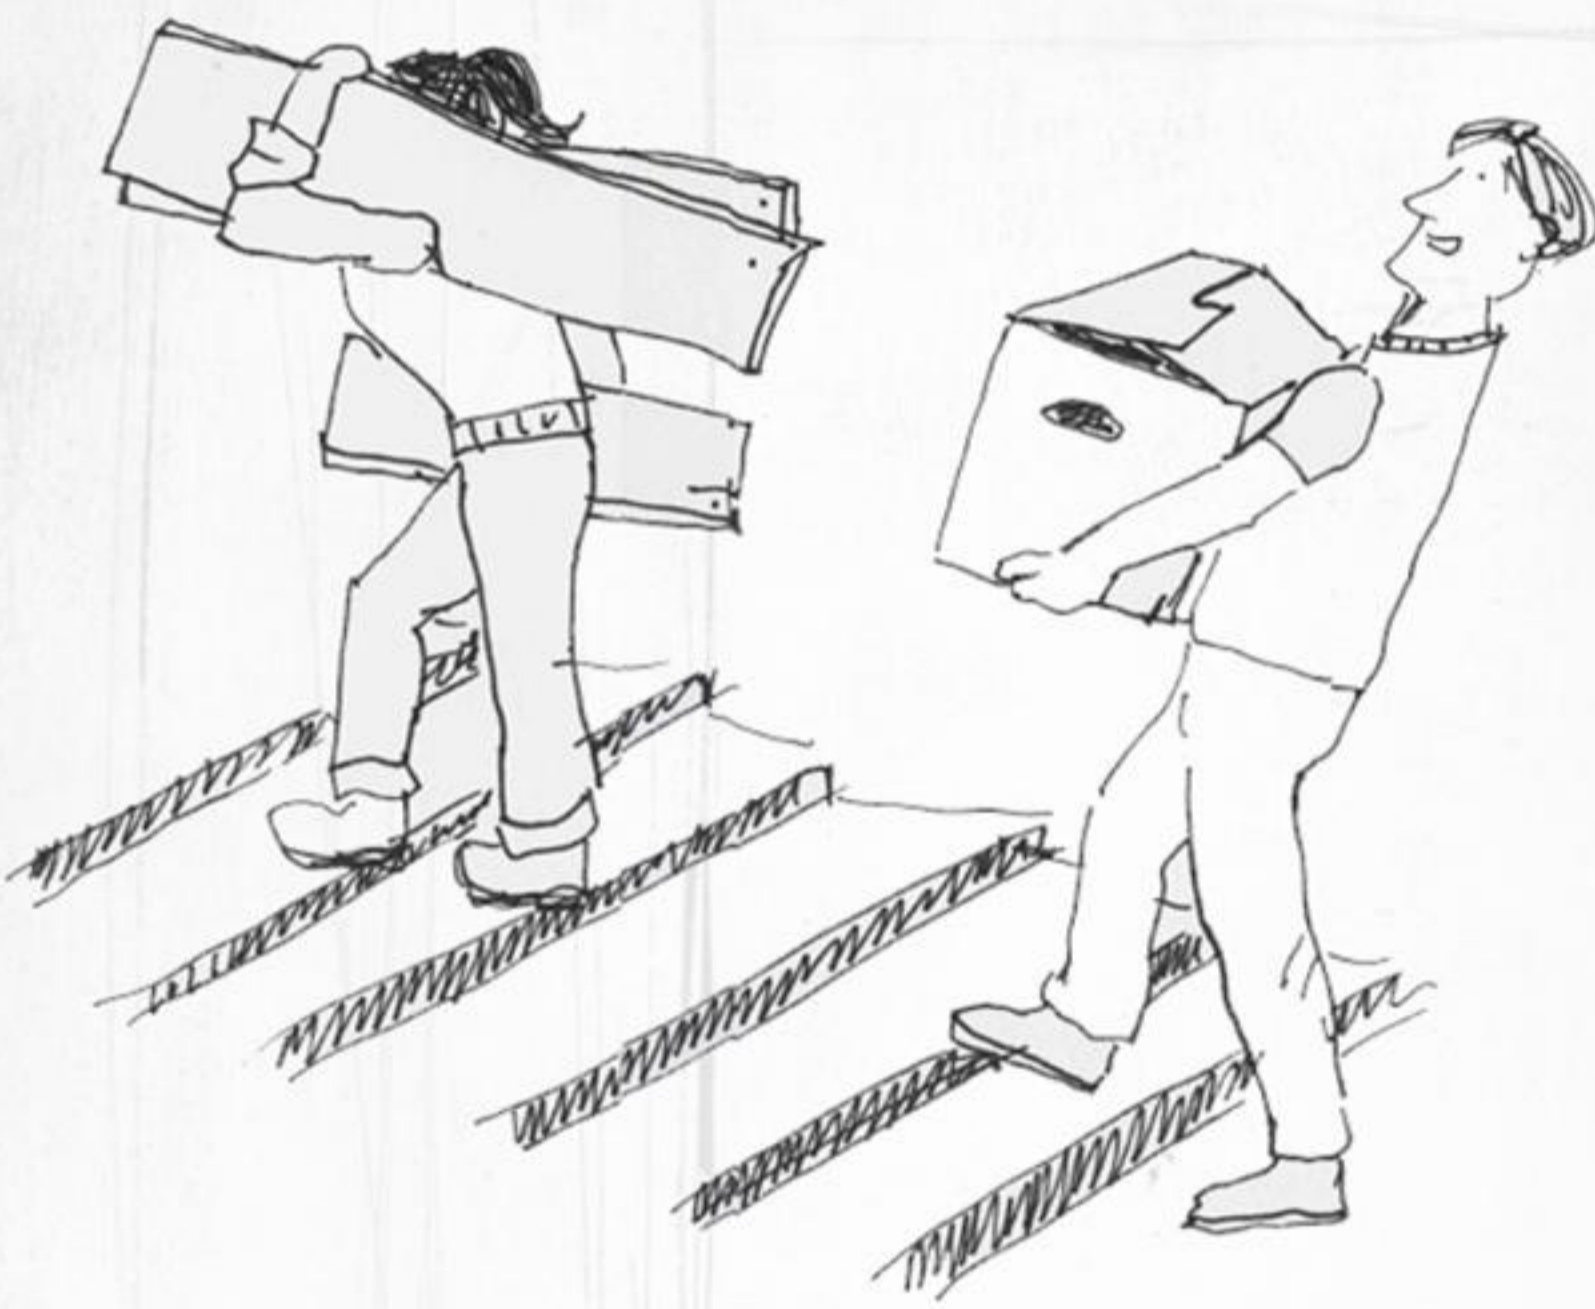

The Thompsons are going on their summer holiday. They are taking the train to southern France, where they will stay in an apartment. They will mostly eat in, but every now and then they will also go to the nice creperie on the seafront.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

Management consultant Joan Price advises the Anderson siblings on the foundation of their limited company.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

Silvia, Pete, Anna and Alex are moving to a new shared flat. Lots of their friends come to help carry the heavy boxes.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

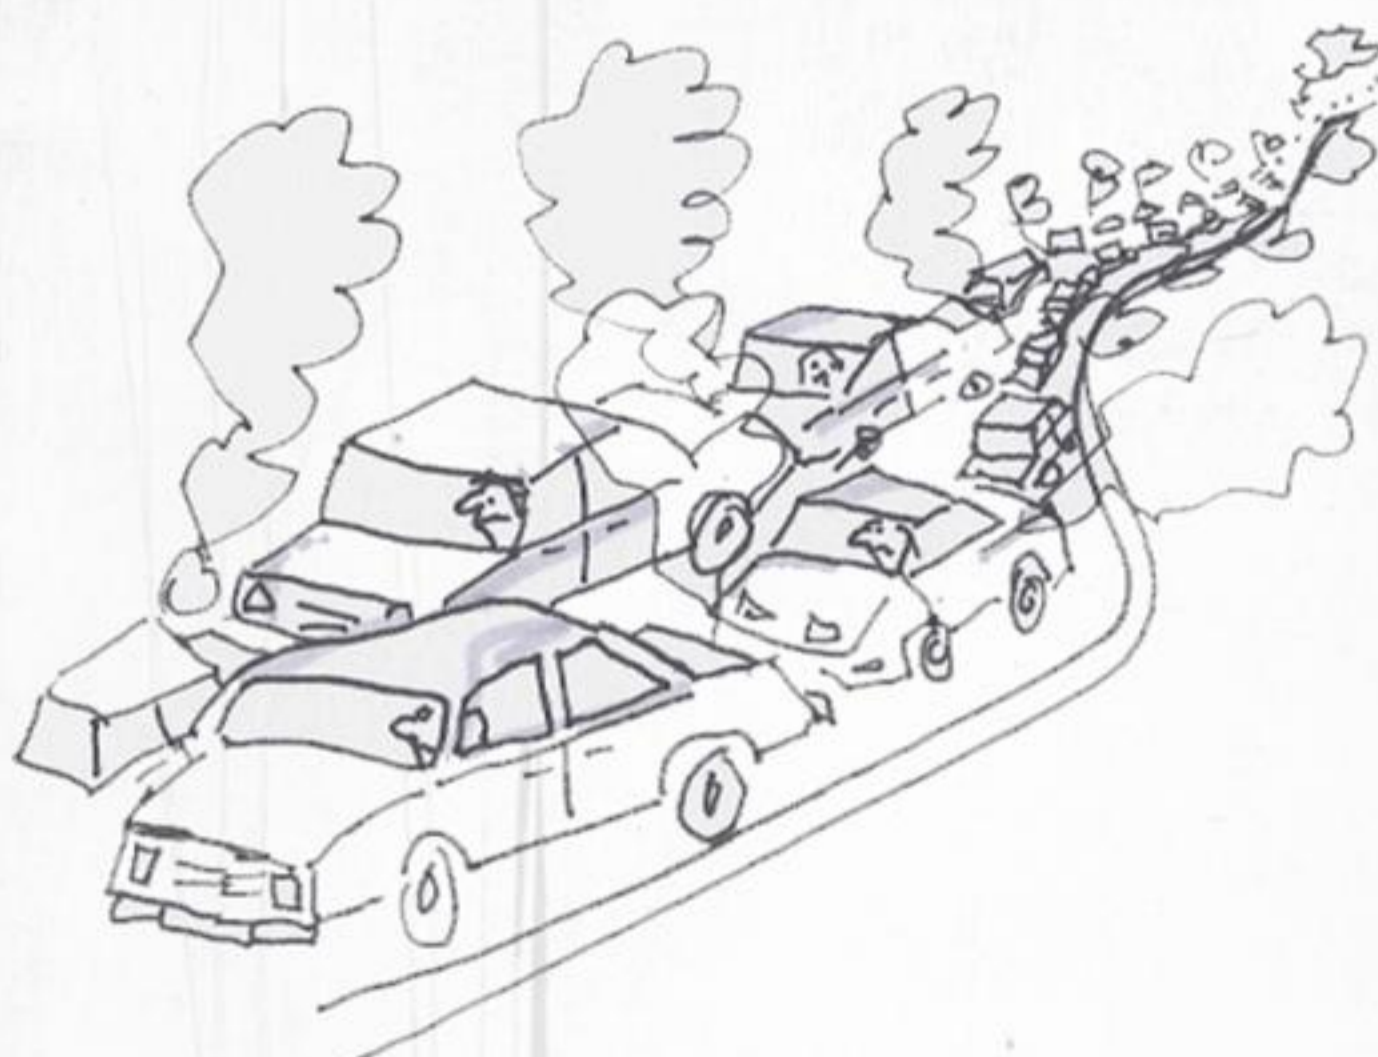

Carlo takes a shelf unit and his unused record collection to the new Free Shop in London. He finds a pair of almost new walking boots in his size, which he takes home with him.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

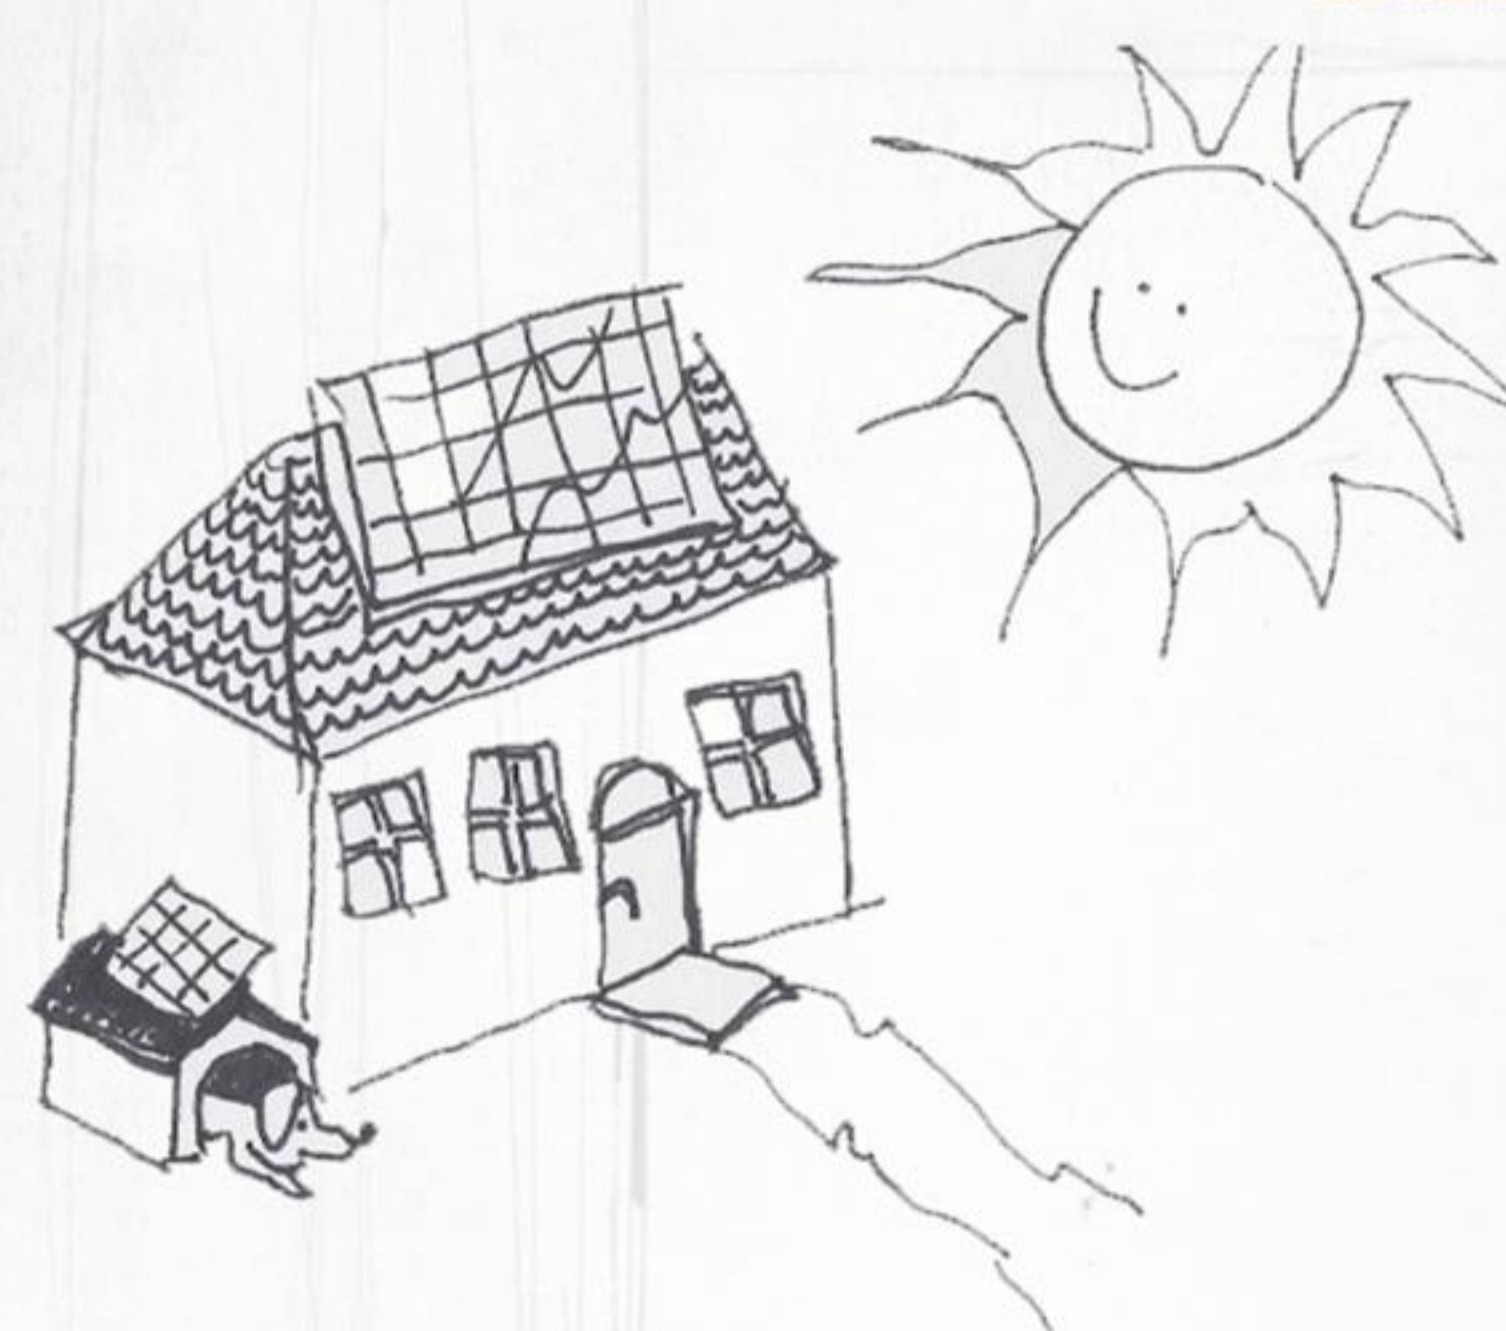

A tornado sweeps across the south of the UK, destroying the Patel family's house and car.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

Every day, Mrs Taylor spends over an hour in rush hour traffic among hundreds of cars travelling at walking speed.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

Frank and Bob Graham have decided to do their bit for renewable energy. They buy a regionally produced solar panel for the roof and hire a local company to install it.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

The Fernandez family flies from Barcelona to Munich for three days to visit their daughter Inmaculada. Taking the train would have cost twice as much.

www.endlich-wachstum.de

